WHERE MINORITY RULES

Washington, Nov. 27.—The annual report of the United States Indian Inspector for Indian Territory calls attention to the fact that the territory, embracing nearly 20,000,000 acres, is owned in common by citizens of the various tribes, comprising Indians, negroes and intermarried whites, aggregating 84,750 people, including freedmen, within the borders of which are located some 350,000 whites or non-citizens who have no title to property and are without representation in the government of the territory.

Until the lands are appraised and allotted by the Commission to the five civilized tribes, lands in town sites disposed of and tribal governments have become extinct, certain laws of Arkansas are extended over Indian Territory. Federal laws apply in other instances, and the Secretary of the Interior is charged by law with enforcement of rules and regulations governing other matters. Such a condition renders affairs so complicated that it is not surprising, when courts and eminent lawyers differ as to the proper construction of the law, the people are frequently at a loss to determine what laws apply or who is authorized to enforce them.

In view of the combined refusal of non-citizens within the Chickasaw and Choctaw Nation to comply with the tribal laws, and of the fact that the only remedy is to remove them, the report recommends that Congress prescribe a penalty, the same as in the States, for seizure and sale of property sufficient to pay taxes due, or that some other method be adopted to compel payment of them other than removing, provided these tribal tax laws are to be in force for six years hence.

KITCHNER, HIS CINCH

WILL BOTTLE UP THE SOUTH AFRICAN AFFAIRS

Allows no Reports of His Doings to go Over the Wires---War for Three Years More.

New York, Nov. 24.—A cable to the Sun from London says the London newspaper publishers have not yet been informed that Lord Kitchener has decided to expel correspondents from the scene of war, but the meager and colorless dispatches now being received present strong evidence that he is enforcing in a modified form his Omdurman edict. The telegrams cease to mention the details of compulsory pacification on which the former Siridar is engaged. His chief task now is to prevent the Dutch in Cape Colony from learning the details of farm burnings and the deportations of families. The latter are now sent to Natal when they are not confined in garrisoned towns in the Transvaal and the Orange River Colony.

Italian Priest is a Numerous Inventor

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Father Felix Marian Lepore, pastor of an Italian Catholic church in Denver, Col., is in Chicago to arrange for the manufacture of several unique inventions. Among them are a fire escape and life preserver. There are also an invalid's bed, a new sewing needle, a salt and pepper holder, and, as the legend runs on his card, "inventions of every description." The new sewing needle can be threaded by the blind. The eye is automatic and need not trouble the most nervous. Then there is a fire escape with a gong attached to awaken the sleeper and with a wire ladder descending at his touch.

Father Lepore said: "The salt and pepper holder is a simple cylinder partitioned into halves and so arranged that it will rain either pure salt or pungent pepper at the pleasure of him who shakes."

"The invalid's bed is designed for sick rooms and hospitals. It really consists only of a frame, which may be fitted in any bed. By means of cranks at the side the patient may be raised to any posture; he may be lifted entirely from the bed; in fact, he can be handled easily without hands and without pain. The patent life preserver looks like a combination diving suit and coffin. With the hood or helmet it resembles a mummy. One may safely cast himself overboard in it into the wildest sea, for it will ride out any storm and preserve life for weeks."
